

Yellowstone County 4-H Dept. N minutes 12-7-17

Roni called the meeting to order.

Make it and take it:

- Sign up forms will be mailed out soon
- Sign up forms can be found online
- Still looking for help with cloverbuds
- Held on Feb 10 at the First Congregational Church across from the 4H office

Showcase:

- Still looking for a place in Laurel to have it
- Need a theme
- Looking for names of judges, contact Roni with names
- Looking for people to help out on that day and to help with quilt show and getting awards

New Beginner sewing book

- Book will be about learning the sewing machine
- Put together with help of sewing leaders in the area
- It will be downloadable and can be used this year
- Working on second book that will be about reading patterns

Workshops:

- Photography workshop Dec 12th
- Ceramics held 3rd Sat. of every month 1st years start in January, new techniques will be taught
- Cake decorating going on, had 200 cake pans donated, talk to Carol Corder if you want to borrow one.
- Shooting sports are underway. Some groups have filled up. If you are signed up for any shooting sports discipline make sure you get hooked up with a certified leader. You can not shoot at the county shoot or fair without working with a certified 4h leader. Applied for an NRA grant, There will be a 4h leader training here in April.

Joann Fabrics discount

- Joann's will be doing a paper clover event to support 4H in Feb.
- Looking for people to come and help with a event in the store
- 4H members can sign up for a 15% saving card

Submitted by Jodie Drange